T. DEWITT TAYLOR JR.-SR. HIGH

Pierson, Florida

June 1969

DEDICATION

MRS. ERMA McMILLAN

Twenty-two years of devoted service to students, teachers, administrators, and parents have endeared Mrs. Erma McMillan to many.

Besides efficiently fulfilling her secretarial duties to the principal, she is a most considerate, willing assistant and advisor to teachers and students.

With deep appreciation for "Erma," the Coacoochee Staff dedicates this book to her.

ADMINISTRATION

OUR PRINCIPAL

Mr. W. T. Hill, Taylor High's new principal, was born in Leesburg, Florida. He is married and has two children - Nancy, 12, and Tommy, 6. He attended the University of Florida for his Bachelor's Degree and Stetson University for his Master's Degree. His experiences prior to coming to Taylor were teaching and coaching at DeLand Junior-Senior High School, DeLand Senior High School, and Supervisor of Social Studies for the County. His hobbies are sports, fishing, and hunting. Mr. Hill says that the students are, "Fine! Very friendly and very cooperative." Welcome to Taylor High, Mr. Hill.

VARIABLE INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICE

Mrs. Pierson views the Variable Instructional Service as an aid for special cases, to broaden the vision of gifted students, or to awaken the curiosity even of the non-reader so that he sees the need to read for instruction or information he needs to complete some project in painting, construction, costuming, etc. These pupils are usually assigned to her for this special instruction for one period at a time from their regular class for a limited or extended time.

Pictures on the adjoining page show Mrs. Pierson's students and some of their work.

Shipwrecked sailors overcome by the natives.

Ready to listen to the Class Prophecy after Tarzan has come to the rescue.

The Senior Class history, will and prophecy were presented in a South Sea Island scene with a script written by Marva Underhill.

In their last cooperative efforts as a class the seniors displayed commendable attitudes of goodwill, understanding, and a mutual admiration for each other. All joined in the fun and hilarity as the shipwrecked crew were captured by the natives and eventually freed by the famous Tarzan.

Many thanks go to Mr. John Beck for these marvelous photos, as well as most of the others in this book, which will continue to bring many pleasant memories to the Class of '69.

Mark Willis as Cheetah, Cindy Bennett as Jane, Dean Beck as Boy.

Shipwrecked crew subdued by the Islanders as Hawaiian maidens observe helplessly.

Mrs. Andersen presents Gloria Monts Dramatic Award for best comedy actress in Senior Class Play.

CLASS NIGHT

Senior Seer prophesied titles of Mr. and Mrs. America for Tom Blocker and Audry McCormick,

All joined the fun as serious-faced Ike Parham, Jerome Brantley, and Bobby Miler hold grave-faced Hugh Cosimini in the "pot." Notice Jerome ready to pepper Hugh with the mace.

Dale Strickland as Tarzan

Mr. Hill presents Debbie Sapp with award for outstanding service in Homemaking Department.

With a "yell" Tarzan (Dale Strickland) leaps over the bamboo fence.

Activities conclude with Class of '69 singing Class Song composed by Sandra Underwood. Sandra was also pianist for the group.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY — "THE DAFFYDILLS"

The "daffy" actions of the aunt and Dill children in an attempt to discourage the father's new wife from remaining in the home provided an entertaining evening for a capacity crowd. The new wife, who is an imposter, laying the way for the real wife, meets the challenge of every "daffy" trick of the family.

A happy conclusion discloses the real "new mother" when father returns from a business trip and greets as his wife a supposed cousin, who has been visiting the family and gained their confidence and love.

STANDING: Marva Underhill, father's fiancee; Marvin Naiman, Mr. Dill, the father; Cheryl Carlisle, the phony fiancee; Scott Campbell, oldest son; Debbie Sapp, friend of Dill children; Gloria Monts, the maid. FRONT ROW: Cindy Bennett, one of Dill twins; Gloria Steadman, a neighbor; Karen Ergle, children's aunt; Marguerite Lucas, oldest daughter; Dean Beck, other mischievous twin.

"Oh, he has these spells."

"Want to hear me crow like a rooster?"

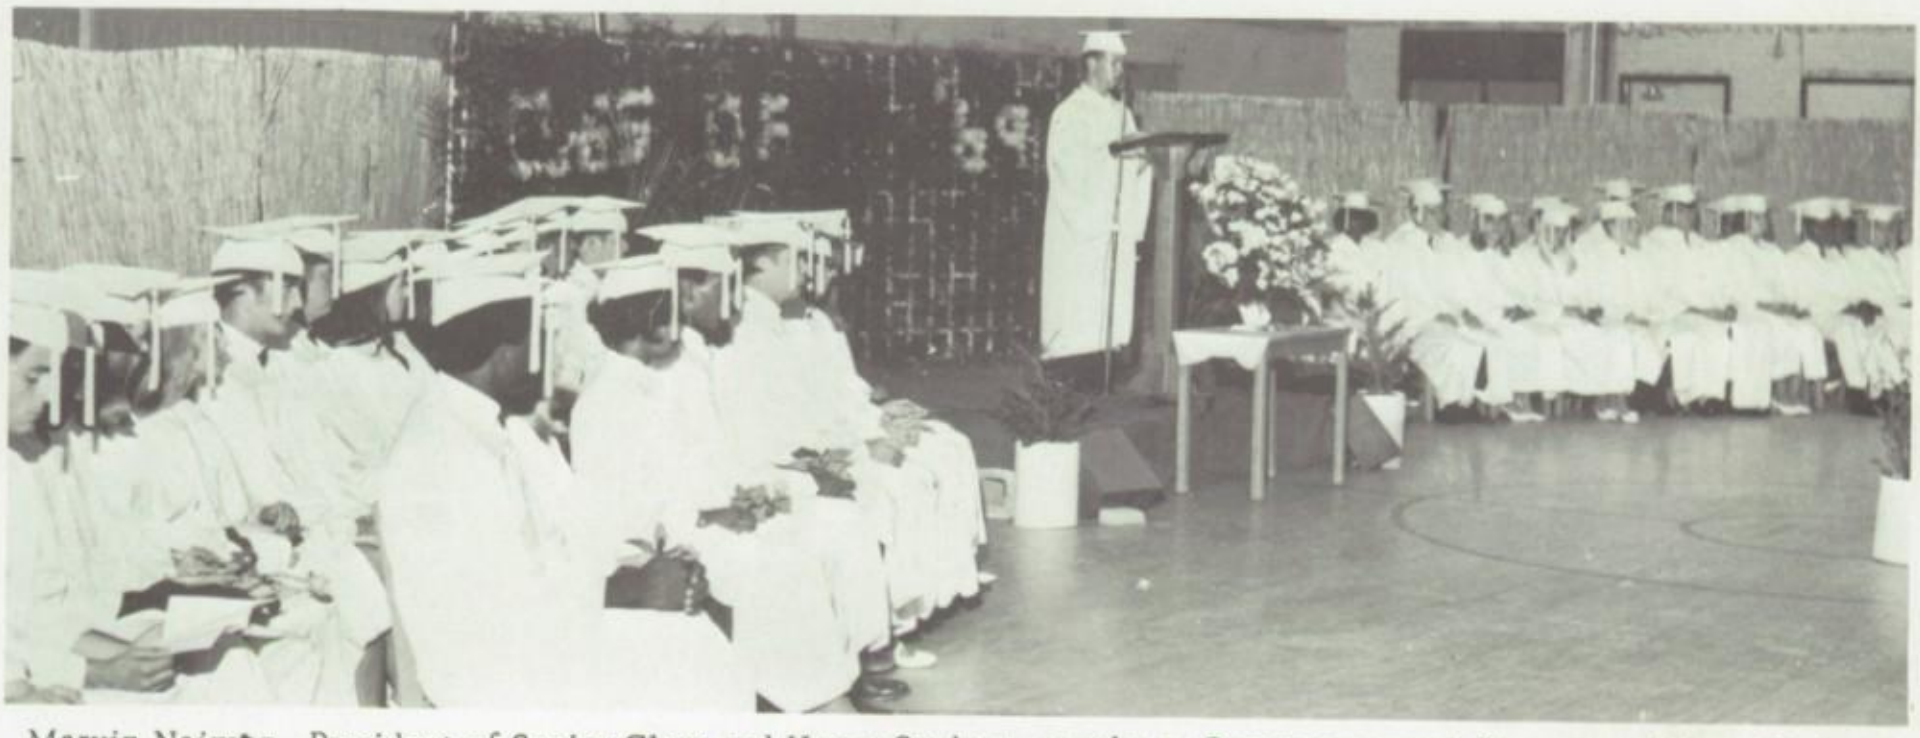
"How could he do this to us? FATHER'S MARRIED!!"

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

A gift for the sponsor

Junior class president, Wally Bell, and his date, Peggy Branton, lead the Grand March.

GRADUATION



Marvin Naiman, President of Senior Class and Honor Student, speaks at Commencement Program. Marva Underhill and Marvin, the two top students, were each presented with four awards.

James McGinnis presented Lutheran Church Men's Awards; Luebelle Wilson presented VFW Auxiliary Award to Marvin; and Bob Haynes presented the Lions Club Awards to the same two top students, Marva and Marvin. Andrew Nixon (not pictured) presented the VFW Award to Marva.

Scott Campbell received the Merit Award for scoring highest on Senior State Test. Audry McCormick and Mickey Blackburn were presented "I Dare You Awards." Presenting the awards was Mr. Faircloth.

Commencement Speakers: Marvin, Marva, Cindy and Scott.

Edward Guess Chamber of Commerce Award from Mr. Taylor.

Sandra Underwood and Marvin Naiman receive DAR and SAR awards from Vincent Gould.

Waiting for time to don gowns!
